

THIS IS not your typical class.

Be in control of how much you do.
Earn English credit, honors points and gain college and scholarship notice.

Become a sports reporter, web editor, graphic designer or make Facebook and Twitter your homework.

Work, play, TRAVEL. Be a part of a student-run, award-winning, nationally-recognized program.

Members of staff after conquering Lombard Street in San Francisco during a trip to the National High School Journalism Convention in California. This is one of the many trips the staff has taken. Future trips will be to a variety of places from San Diego and Washington DC to Denver and Orlando!

Awards

Join one of the top journalism programs in the country. The publications consistently rank among the nation's elite at national conventions and contests. The staff has earned Pacemaker, Crown, Gallup and Best of Show honors numerous times. Win awards as part of a team and individually. In the past 10 years we have had three of Missouri's High School Journalist's of the Year and staffers have won numerous scholarships for their work.

Contact

Aaron Manfull, Adviser
aaron.manfull@fhsdschools.org
Room 026
636-851-5107

Going Places

Students move out of their seats and beyond the classroom to cover community and national events. They attend a local conference at Webster University and the state conference at Mizzou. Staff members also attend national conventions each year in places ranging from Anaheim and Minneapolis to Washington D.C. and Boston.

Skills

If you're into writing or designing, there's a place for you. Want to be a sports reporter or a movie reviewer? There's a place for you. If you're into photography or videography, want to work on the web or in business advertising, there's a place for you. Like Facebook and Twitter? We even have jobs for that. Learn skills that matter now and help later.

Meeting People

In room 026 you'll meet everyone from sports team captains and Student Council members to artists and those in band. You'll also have the chance to meet and talk with famous people. Staffers have interviewed and/or photographed everyone from Barack Obama and Ron Paul to boxing great Evander Holyfield and First Amendment fighter Mary Beth Tinker.

Courses

Looking to get an Honors Point? Publications can get you that too. Newspaper, Yearbook and FHNtoday.com staffs are all co-curricular classes that meet during the school day. You get Practical Arts credit for being a member of staff and even have the option to take the publication courses for an Honors Point. Inquire about your options.

FHNtoday.com
FHNgameday.com
North Star Newsmagazine Excilibur Yearbook
FHNtoday TV

write design photo video edit web social draw

Sign up for JOURNALISM & DIGITAL PHOTOJ